EDAC member Ziegler moved to adopt minutes, EDAC member Lingelbach seconded. Motion passed.

5. CHAIR & VICE CHAIR ELECTIONS

EDAC members Anderson and Ziegler agreed that the committee is making progress and that Chair Hurford and Vice Chair Lingelbach should remain in their roles. EDAC member Anderson moved the formal nomination and Ziegler seconded. Motion passed. Chair Hurford will be ask Council to extend his appointment as EDAC Chair for another year.

6. REVIEW DISCUSSION: RESOLUTION 64-2015 APPROVING INCENTIVES ON ALL VACANT LAND IN THE CITY.

Senior Planner Palmer gave a brief update on the incentive program. Fairview City Council will be reviewing the program and proposed language changes at their upcoming meeting on the February 17th.

7. HALSEY CORRIDOR GRANT UPDATE

Senior Planner Palmer gave an update on where the City is at in the process of the grant. The City of Fairview adopted by resolution the Metro IGA. The city hired John Wiebke from SPRIG consulting group to help coordinate the grant. John Wiebke worked for the City in the spring of 2015 and helped write the grant.

The City will be drafting a three city IGA and a RFP for a consultant. Once the draft three cities IGA is complete it will be sent to Wood Village, Troutdale and Multnomah County for review. The IGA outlines the work tasks and committees.

Staff is hoping that the RFP will be advertised in March and by Mid-April there will be a consultant on board.

7. NEW BUSINESS

EDAC's quarterly update to City Council is scheduled for Wednesday, March 16th, 2016. Chair Hurford asked the group if there were any outstanding issues that should be brought to Council's attention. EDAC discussed the city's sidewalk program and the need to continue infilling sidewalks in the community because of the value that they provide.
